

Electrical driveline

Electrical driveline

This program is aimed to offer upskill or reskill opportunity to those who have experience in engineering or similar background. It provides knowledge about electrical vehicles and its components. All lectures are delivered as live webinar/seminars during daytime. All live webinar/seminars will be recorded and uploaded on the learning platform. The program provides the students with knowledge in electrification, Safety regulations Electrical machines, Electrical storage system and Power electronics.

Additional Requirement:

- Mathematics 3 (Mathematics C)
- Physics 1 (Physics A)

More about the programme

This program is aimed to offer upskill or reskill opportunity to those who have experience in engineering or similar background. Basic understanding from electricity is preferred. There will be skilled teachers with both academic and practical experience. After successfully completed the programme you will receive a certificate.

Information

You find more information at our website: ya.se/yrkeshogskola